- f) Registered co-drivers are eligible for all Series categories in accordance with Section 4 (g) and (h).

- h) Co-drivers may score points if their driver is not registered for the Series, providing the driver and vehicle would be considered eligible for a category if that driver were in fact registered for the Series and the vehicle has the series as per Section 6. Series sponsor signage.
- i) Driver's will automatically qualify for the Gold Cup category.
- j) Drivers may nominate other registration categories for which they believe they are eligible, including Silver Cup, Clubman and/or Novice, at the time of registration. The committee will consider a driver's category eligibility based on previous experience and results.
 - i. Adjustment of a driver's category eligibility may be considered by the committee based on a request from a driver and supported by evidence of recent performances and results.
 - ii. Any change in driver category will not entitle the driver or any of their co-drivers to a transfer of points from one category to another for previous results.

- k) The only coefficient seeding list to be used to determine a driver's eligibility for each Series category is provided courtesy of Rally NSW as per section 13 – the list is available on the Rally NSW website: <http://www.rallynsw.com.au>. ACT Novice	Driver seeding of 89 or lower, in the vehicle driven at the event	The driver must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> iii. have not started more than seven (7) special stage rallies as a driver prior to 31 Dec 2023; iv. have not been classified as a finisher as a driver in five (5) or more special stage rally events prior to 31 Dec 2023 (for the purposes of this clause, introductory/regulatory rallies are not considered special stage rallies); and v. have not placed 1st outright in the ACT Novice category previously

- l) If the Committee determines that a Driver is not eligible for a category at any time, the Committee reserves the right to:
- i. withdraw that Driver's registration from the category for which they are deemed ineligible;
 - ii. cancel any points awarded to the Driver for any category for which they are subsequently deemed ineligible; and
 - iii. cancel any points awarded to a Co-driver, where points were incorrectly awarded for a category for which their Driver was subsequently deemed ineligible.
- m) The Committees decision/s on eligibility are considered final and are not subject to protest.

5. Point scores

- a) The Series will comprise of seven (7) provisional rounds, with a competitor's six (6) highest scoring events counting towards their Series point scores and categories.
- b) One of the six (6) events may be an officiating round.
- c) If six (6) or less rounds are successfully conducted, all events will count towards the Series point score
- d) To be eligible for outright Series point scores, registered competitors must participate in at least two (2) events.
- e) Points will be awarded as follows for each Series category:
 - i. Competitor starts an event - 1 point,
 - iv. Competitor finishes an event - 1 point,
 - v. A placing in the top ten of each Series category - 20, 15, 12, 10, 8, 6, 4, 3, 2, 1 point(s) respectively. E.g. first in the Series category will score 20 for placing, plus one for starting and one for finishing resulting in a total of 22 points.
- f) The eligibility requirements for competitors relating to point scoring are outlined in Section 4 of these Regulations.
- g) The eligibility requirements for vehicles relating to point scoring are outlined in Section 7 of these Regulations
- h) Competitors must ensure that Series sponsor signage (outlined in Section 6 of these Regulations) is attached to their competing vehicle prior to the start of any event at which they wish to score Series points. This includes for section 4 (h). Failure to display signage as required will result in no points being allocated to the competitor/s for the event.
- i) Points may only be scored as either a Driver or a Co-driver when competing at each event and will be allocated based on the entry list for that event. Competitors are not permitted to swap Driver / Co-driver roles during an event for the purposes of point scoring.
- j) An exception to the 'no swap rule' above is where officiating points are scored by a Series registered Driver and Co-driver who officiate at an event and who may swap roles during their officiating duties (refer to Section 4 (g) and Section 5 (p) below).
- k) Series events may run as 'blind' events (on a supplied road book) or may offer reconnaissance prior to the event which permits competitors to prepare and compete on pace notes. Where both road book and reconnaissance / pace notes are available to Series competitors:
 - i. Gold Cup and Silver Cup competitors will be permitted to run either option without penalty or handicap, however
 - ii. Clubman and Novice competitors will only be permitted to run the event 'blind' on the event road book if they wish to be allocated points for these categories - spot checks may be conducted by the Committee to ensure compliance with this requirement.
- l) For events that run over more than one (1) day, Series classifications will be based on competitors completing 100% of the event in order to score Series points. If a competitor misses part of an event but is permitted to restart that event under the event regulations, they will be deemed not to have finished 100% of the event, and therefore will be ineligible to score Series points as a finisher for that event, although the point for starting the event would still be issued.
- m) Should competitors be tied for a placing in a Series category in an event, each tied competitor will be awarded the points applicable to the placing covered by the tie. The next placed entrant following the tied entrants will receive the next applicable place points:

- i. Example 1: Two competitors tie for 2nd Gold Cup driver; each will receive the 2nd placed points i.e. 17 points. Next placed entrant receives the 4th place points. In this example that would be 12 points.
 - ii. Example 2: Four competitors tie for 3rd Silver Cup co-driver each will receive the 3rd placed points i.e. 14 points. Next placed entrant receives 7th place points, which in this example would be 6 points.
- n) In the event of a tied category point score at the conclusion of the Series, results for the tied competitors will be reviewed by the Committee by tallying the respective number of category wins, with the higher number deemed to take the higher Series placing. Should a tie still occur the process will be repeated with category second placings, category third placings and so on until the tie is broken. If the tie cannot be broken by the above method, the competitors will be awarded equal placing.
- o) Where a multi-event rally (e.g. a “Classic” rally with an “ACT Series” event included or added) is being conducted, it is the competitor’s responsibility to ensure that they enter the correct event to score Series points. The correct Series event to enter will be stated in the event Supplementary Regulations.

 - viii. The Committee may contact event officials to verify that a registered competitors’ officiating duties were completed at an event.
 - ix. If a competitor’s total points score in a category at the end of the year are only scored through completion of an officiating round, those points become null and void for the purpose of determining Series placings and awards for the year.

The Committee will provide a response within 24 hours.
